

Leavin' Today

The Answer

Locked out, lost in the system
Bruised out, bruised into submission
You won't go where you wanted to go, now
You can't fight, so, I'll keep you below
You can't fight, you won't fight
You can't fight, no
I think you know I gotta go,
So, I'm leavin' today
I think you know I'm leavin' today
Oh, that's right!

You can't choose the things you believe in
You can't buy the roads that you are leadin'
You can't choose, you won't choose
You can't choose
I think you know I've got to go,
So, I'm leavin' today
I think you know I'm leavin' today
A-ha, ha, ha!

Cry now human machine, the thing
I will do will be done for me
Scream now for all you see
Is only as clean as the air you breathe
I think you know I got to go, so, I'm leavin'
I think you know I got to go, so, I'm leavin'
I think you know I gotta go now,

I gotta know you saw me leavin' me today
I think you know I'm leavin' today
