

Left Me Standing

The Answer

You walked away and you never looked back
A broken heart you don't care about that
I know you don't
I just know you don't
And if the sky was gonna fall on me
You wouldn't care because I don't believe
That you ever really worried if I made it back home
You're gone forever so I guess we'll never know anyway

Sometimes I wish that the wind would carry me up
I wanna leave with the breeze just taking me far away
So far away
Can't wait around for the ground to swallow me up
Wait around for the ground to swallow me up again
Swallow me up again

You'll never know all the damage you caused
I'm never gonna be the man that I was I know I won't
I just know I won't
You're every voice I hear singing in the crowd
I keep thinking that you're gonna turn around
And you make me wanna hate myself much more
Than I ever hated you, yes you do

Sometimes I wish that the wind would carry me up
I wanna leave with the breeze just taking me far away
So far away
Can't wait around for the ground to swallow me up
Wait around for the ground to swallow me up again
Swallow me up again

Do you ever think about me anymore?
Is it unrequited love just like before?
Do you ever think about me anymore?
Anymore?

Sometimes I wish that the wind would carry me up
I wanna leave with the breeze just taking me far away
So far away
Can't wait around for the ground to swallow me up
Wait around for the ground to swallow me up again
Swallow me up again

Sometimes I wish that the wind would carry me up
I wanna leave with the breeze just taking me far away
So far away
Can't wait around for the ground to swallow me up
Wait around for the ground to swallow me up again
Swallow me up again
