

Too Far Gone

The Answer

You don't know, you can't know just who I am
You don't know, you can't know just who I am

You say you gotta name and a number
Well, we're gonna find you anyway
Communications lost throughout the land
Oh, you offer me your guilty hand

Because you're too far gone with the money you've spent
Take a stab at a war, you work for the government
Too far gone, you're too far gone, I say you're too far gone
But you keep pushing harder and harder

Think you got a vote from the people
Now you've gotta fight for your right to stay, yeah you do
Disillusion can't connect the world
I can't believe in your fucking law no more

Because you're too far gone with the money you've spent
Take a stab at a war, you're working for the government
Too far gone, you're too far gone, I say you're too far gone
But you keep pushing harder and harder

You take the free from the people, I guess you got the human di sease
You stand tall you look strong but you're taking the free out o f me
Yeah, out of me and it's not exactly hard to see

You don't know, you can't know just who I am
You don't know, you can't know just who I am

You're too far gone, you're too far gone, I say you're too far gone
But you keep pushing harder and harder, yeah
