

Why'd You Change Your Mind

The Answer

They found a letter in your pocket, ALarm bells in your head,
A painting of a long knife hidden by the bed,
You swore you're suicidal as you were staring at the rope,
With the garage door behind you,
Offering no hope.

Why'd you change your mind?
Why'd you change your mind?
Honey can you tell me, why'd you change your mind?

So I ruffled up your feathers,
I tried to understand your ways,
But you were changing with the weather,
You were changing every day.

Why'd you change your mind?
Why'd you change your mind?
Honey can you tell me, why'd you change your mind?
So you walked the other way,
I saw you walk the other way.
Now you'll never tell... Me.

If I'm honest I can still be led,
Turn your head, turn your head,
If I'm honest I can still be led,
Turn your head, turn your head,

Why'd you change your mind?
Why'd you change your mind?
Honey can you tell me, why'd you change your mind?
So you walked the other way,
I saw you walk the other way,
Tell me why'd you walk,
Why'd you walk, Why'd you walk away?

Now you'll never tell me,
Now you'll never tell me,
Now you'll never tell.
