The Antlers

Wait in the dark for me
Wait 'til you hear my feet

Through and through
They want to walk all over you
Run where they can't follow
Wait underwater with me
Swim 'til you're half asleep

Through and through
They wanna sink and maroon you
Float on your back, take me
Closer to truth, but much, much further

Through and through
I'm the ocean under you
Float on your back, take me
Closer to truth, but much, much further
Closer to truth, but much, much further
Closer to truth, but much, much further
Closer to truth, but much, much further
Closer to truth, but much, much further
