

Home Is Not Places

The Apache Relay

Feel it burn in my soul.
Like a wound that is exposed.
I need to run, I need to go.
I took my time, I got no more.

So take me somewhere I don't know.
'Cause Home is not places, it is Love.

I told myself that it was fine,
No shame in the jagged lines.
But then I woke in the night,
It raised my sense for a fight.

So take me somewhere I don't know
'Cause home is not places, it is Love.

And I, I don't want no control
'Cause home is not places it is Love.

It is Love
It is Love
It is Love
It is Love

It is Love
It is Love

Move along, move along, you're going too slow, you'll never see it All!

Do your dance, sing a song, I just need us both to Carry On!

Oh move along, move along, we won't stop until we've seen it Al l!

Clap your hands, sing a song, everything that we've ever had is gone, it's gone

Oh move along, move along, we will sleep until our heartbeat is gone!

Lets live our lives, holding on, just you and me, we'll still b e getting gone. we'll still be getting gone.
