

Hold On To Me

The Apers

You feel angry, betrayed, pushed away, insecure and completely alone
You called all of your family and friends but no one would answer the phone
You feel lost in this world, you feel so outta step with the rest of the crowd
You are stuck in a maze, but no one understands what you're talking about

You still hide behind lies and you cover the truth with a nod and a smile
You decided you're just gonna go with the flow, sit it out for while
You feel trapped in a circle that's vicious and cruel, you seem nailed to the ground
You are chained to a life that's designed just to drag you all the way down

Hold on to me
There's more to life than safety and security
Hold on to me
Your heart should be your #1 priority
So why don't you hold on to me?

Hold on to me...
