

Word Is Out

The Apers

I went to the bar last night, got shitfaced like I always do
The night was young, and I was feeling alright, same as ever, nothing new

Then some dude came up to me and this is what he said:
Yo Aper, I've got some news for you, I bet you haven't heard th is yet

Saw your girlfriend with another dude last night
Thought I'd tell you, cause this shit just don't seem right

Now what have you got to say for yourself, what have you got to say?

Word is out, word is out on the street
You rather hang out with him than you do with me
Word is out, word is out on the street
You rather hang out with him than you do with me

So I stayed home, watched Rocky 6, fantastic movie, must admit
The beer was cold, and the weed was killer, still I really felt like shit
Had this dude been shitting me, just fuckin with my brain?
The thought of you with another dude is driving me insane

I don't wanna spend Christmas alone this year
Eating noodles whiles just crying in my beer

Now what have you got to say for yourself, what have you got to
say?

Word is out, word is out on the street
You rather hang out with him than you do with me
Word is out, word is out on the street
You rather hang out with him than you do with me

Word is out, word is out on the street.. (6x)

Now what have you got to say for yourself, what have you got to
say?

Word is out, word is out on the street
You rather hang out with him than you do with me
Word is out, word is out on the street
You rather hang out with him than you do with me...
