

Bang-Shang-A-Lang

The Archies

I recall just walking down the street
Trying to escape the city heat
I saw her from the corner
Of my eye, eye, eye
Yes, she looked so good
I thought I'd die

My heart went bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
My heart went bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang

Something said I
Shouldn't waste no time
If I'm ever gonna make her mine
I walked right up and Say how do you do, do, do
She said I bet I do
As good as you

My heart went bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
My heart went bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang

I remember when I held her tight
(Bang shang a lang)
Felt like holding dynamite now
(Bang shang a lang)
What's that ringing in my ear
(Bang shang a lang)
Tell me, ain't those bells I hear
(Bang shang a lang)

Bang, bang, shang a lang
Bang, bang, shang a lang
Bang, bang, bang
Shang a lang lang
Bang, bang, bang
Shang a lang, lang

Now she's gonna
Spend her life with me
And we'll be as happy as can be
Because I love her more
Than I can tell, tell, tell
Sunday afternoon
We'll hear the bells

And they'll go bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
Oh, they'll go bang shang a lang

Bang shang a lang

Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
