Bang-Shang-A-Lang

The Archies

I recall just walking down the street Trying to escape the city heat I saw her from the corner Of my eye, eye, eye
Yes, she looked so good I thought I'd die

My heart went bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang, bang, bang My heart went bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang, bang, bang

Something said I
Shouldn't waste no time
If I'm ever gonna make her mine
I walked right up and
Say how do you do, do, do
She said I bet I do
As good as you

My heart went bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang, bang, bang My heart went bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang, bang, bang

I remember when I held her tight (Bang shang a lang)
Felt like holding dynamite now (Bang shang a lang)
What's that ringing in my ear (Bang shang a lang)
Tell me, ain't those bells I hear (Bang shang a lang)

Bang, bang, shang a lang Bang, bang, shang a lang Bang, bang, bang Shang a lang lang Bang, bang, bang Shang a lang, lang

Now she's gonna
Spend her life with me
And we'll be as happy as can be
Because I love her more
Than I can tell, tell, tell
Sunday afternoon
We'll hear the bells

And they'll go bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang, bang, bang Oh, they'll go bang shang a lang Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang
Bang shang a lang, bang, bang
