

Run

The Atomic Bitchwax

Did you ever want to be, a part of me, a combination
Red eyes staring up from the side of the street
They follow me with hesitation
And who am I, where are you 0771
Say you got to, well I just had to

Well longer the wait the longer the lie
The stronger the hate, don't lose your, oh
Don't look over here, look over there
Going going going going gone

What's the matter with you

Nothing's wrong with me
Something's wrong with you
Nothing's wrong
Something's wrong with you
Something's going wrong

Did you ever really want to see
The irony of the situation
Green eyes cried out from the jealousy
Quit your blaming me with accusations
