The Atomic Bitchwax

Did you ever wat to be, a part of me, a combination Red eyes staring up from the side of the street They follow me with hesitation And who am I, where are you 0771 Say you got to, well I just had to

Well longer the wait the longer the lie The stronger the hate, don't lose your, oh Don't look over here, look over there Going going going going gone

What's the matter with you

Nothing's wrong with me Something's wrong with you Nothing's wrong Something's wrong with you Something's going wrong

Did you ever really want to see The irony of the situation Green eyes cried out from the jealousy Quit your blaming me with accusations

Run
