

Wreck You

The Atomic Bitchwax

Walk around in a zig-zag seven,
And say that's okay, okay,
I had a feeling you're leaving and there's not much time now
It will be any day.

Alright let's fight, cause I'll wreck you.
She's dropping killer comets on my head,
Cut off at the knees with a safety pin, you're so paper thin,
Suck it up, that's what you said.

Got so high between eight and eleven,
Well you should hear that they say,
You got some reason for treason cause you walk two lines now
But they just lead you away.

Alright let's fight, cause I'll wreck you.
She's dropping killer comets on my head,
Cut off at the knees with a safety pin, you're so paper thin,
Suck it up, that's what you said.
