The Audition

EVIL

EVIL

She's so...she's so...

If I'm a liar then you're a thief
Heart so cold hard to believe
Anything could be this evil

How could she do this to me
When my heart's lying here in three
How could anything be so

EVIL

Pretty darn thing trying to catch a spell
Send me straight to hell
Little does she know, little does she know she's
EVIL

Pretty darn thing trying to catch a spell
Send me straight to hell
Little does she know
She's so...she's so...

Even though you said goodbye
I left myself open wide
To invite you in and take my soul oh
Make me weaker than I was Should've seen it just because
Every partygoer's so

EVIL

Pretty darn thing trying to catch a spell
Send me straight to hell
Little does she know, little does she know she's
EVIL

Pretty darn thing trying to catch a spell
Send me straight to hell
Little does she know
She's so...she's so...

Oh I know I can't let this go
And oh I tried to leave all this behind
Oh I know I can't let this go
And oh I tried to leave all this behind

Pretty darn thing trying to catch a spell
Send me straight to hell
Little does she know, little does she know she's
EVIL

Pretty darn thing trying to catch a spell
Send me straight to hell
Little does she know
She's so...she's so...she's so
