

Chinese Bakery

The Auteurs

She's going downtown
But she comes from uptown
Where the brokers and the dealers socialize

She's going downtown
'Cos shes a poet
And the Chinese bakery's open all night

Toulouse lautrec called up today
Said it's rock n roll anyway
Excuse me while I'm tearing off your head

Epiphany just went to ground
The three men just can't be found
The underground just shook it's weary head

She said she's gonna show me around
The Chinese bakery that's open
Twenty hours

She's going downtown
But she comes from uptown
Where the brokers and the dealers socialize

She's going downtown
'Cos shes a poet
And the Chinese bakery's open all night

Got a roller coaster in my head
You press the button, ill eject
Your present is just somebody's past

Don't blink, pinch me twice
Just seen Bob Dylan on a motorbike
I don't think this relationship will last

She said she's gonna show me around
The Chinese bakery that's open
Twenty hours

She's going downtown
But she comes from uptown
Where the brokers and the dealers socialize

She's going downtown
'Cos shes a poet
And the Chinese bakery's open all night
