Bruises from your head to your toe
There are marks all over you
There's no place for you to hide
Since they painted you balck and blue
Blue's the colour I made your eyes
Charcoal the hair
If I fall down
Don't be surprised
This surveillance was unprepared

I'm watching over
Your every move
Life classes life model
Life lessons due

Show me where to disrobe dear
Where I'm out of view
Say something good or shut your mouth
This surveillance is overdue

I'm watching over
My every move
Your lesson life model
Life lesson to

And there's no way to hold your head
So hold your head that low
And there's no way to hold your head
So these things just don't show

Now I'm a Cowboy
Carrying a gun
