

Bad Guy

The Automatic

A different attitude of mind
Is not something to be persecuted
No one government knows justice and truth
From organised crime
Do you think that someone telling you what's right and what's wrong
Means liberty, I don't
Film stars on the silver screen
If there's one thing you know from TV
Good things don't happen to ugly people
A perfect smile is a good guy thing
They get the girl and they always win
Good things don't happen to ugly people
You were born to be the bad guy
Make the hero look good and be despised
You know it's wrong but it feels so right
Nothing to lose and you're going to die
You were born to be the bad guy
Make the hero look good and be despised
You know its wrong but it feels so right
Nothing to lose
You've got a plan; I look in your eyes
You've got commitment and you know what you want
You've got a problem, history shows
There's always somebody you telling you no
Anyone looks good in a tuxedo with a gun
But it takes style to become
Public enemy number one
Film stars on the silver screen
If there's one thing you know from TV
Good things don't happen to ugly people
A perfect smile is a good guy thing
They get the girl and they always win
Good things don't happen to ugly people

Nothing to lose and you're going to die
You were born to be the bad guy
Make the hero look good and be despised
You know it's wrong but it feels so right
Nothing to lose and you're going to die
Always the bad guy
Always the outsider
Always the bad guy
Always the outsider
You were born to be the bad guy
Make the hero look good and be despised
You know it's wrong but it feels so right
Nothing to lose and you're going to die
You were born to be the bad guy
Make the hero look good and be despised
