

Congratulations and Celebrations

I want the world to know that you're in love with him and I'm fucked

Cos I'm not ready for the fall

I'm not ready for the fall

I'll bite lip, bite tongue, have a ball

I'm about ready to go and I hope you will follow

Cos I'm not ready to fall alone

I just called to say that I'm destroyed

I've crawled further now than I did when I was a young boy

Cause I'm not taking to this fall

I'm not taking to this fall at all, at all

Ill bite lip, bite tongue, have a ball

I'm about ready to go and I hope you will follow

Cos I'm not ready to fall alone

I'm not forgetting those moments

You got the better of me

I'm at the end of my patience

You pushed me to the edge

I'm not forgetting those moments

You got the better of me

I'm at the end of my patience

You pushed me to the edge

I'm getting out of this, I just called to say that I'm getting out of this

I'm getting out of this, I just called to say that I'm getting out of this

I'm not ready to fall, but I cannot wait anymore

Cause I'm not ready to fall, but I cannot wait anymore

I'm not forgetting those moments

You got the better of me

I'm at the end of my patience

You pushed me to the edge

I'm not forgetting those moments

You got the better of me

I'm at the end of my patience

You pushed me to the edge
