

Wreck Of Innocence

The Autumn Film

Broken down
I guess I'm not
All I seem to be...

(Chorus)
How could you love
How could you love this
Wreck of innocence
How could you love
How could you love
This fated dissonance

My feet are cold
Staring through painted glass
And you seem far from me...

And how can you love
How can you love this
Wreck of innocence
How can you love
How can you love
This fated dissonance
