

I Must Love You Too Much

The Band

Well, my mama said the girl's puttin' you down
She's gonna ruin my life
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

She said : 'Boy, you're gonna lose your home'
'You better lose your world'
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

I can't help it, I can't help it, girl
I know I miss that old put you down
I just can't do it, girl.

I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
Must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
Must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

Back way up if you carry me
You need me, girl, when I disappear
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

In a slanted way, frontwards and backwards
Anyway you just don't hear
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

Well, I don't know the way but I wish you would go
I wish that you'd get out of my sight
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

Anyway at all, just leave and go
I won't 'til you leave me alone
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
Must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much).

Must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)

Yeah, I love you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
I must have loved you too much
(Must of loved you too much)
...
