

The Executioner

The Basics

I plead for my life and I plead for my soul I've been walkin' death row and I do believe my time is up

She waits at the gate for me Tightens the noose 'round my neck
And I can't believe this really is the end of all the hopes and dreams we had before the world came in and stole them all away

She's the executioner
She's the executioner
She's the executioner

'Sit down' she said,
'I've got somethin' to say.
I've been patient with you,
but I don't believe you'll ever change.
I've made my choice.
Yeah I made up my mind and there'll be no remorse and I'm sorry but the time has come and yeah we had a lot of fun but I really have to do what's right for me.'

She's the executioner
She's the executioner
She's the executioner
She's the executioner

You don't have to do this
You can spare my life
You don't have to whip me
I don't wanna die

She's the executioner
She's the executioner
She's the executioner
She's the executioner, oh

Plead for my life and I plead for my love and I'm screaming inside but it just comes out a whimper.
Her eyes are so cold as she speaks out her sentence and she kicks out the box beneath my feet and I fall forever.

[illegible]

She's the executioner
