

What Have You Done?

The Basics

I've only been out of town for a few days
And just last week, you told me how you had changed
And now I'm hearing stories
About the things that you call 'fun'
So tell me, pretty baby, what have you done?
You're telling me you've been home every night
So tell me how your best friend got in that fight
That's right, she told the story
Of how you got so drunk
So tell me, pretty baby, what have you done?
I won't play your game
If you won't change your ways
Oh no, oh no
You gotta listen to me now!
I'm the best damn thing that ever happened to you
When the only thing you knew was how to be used
Don't lie to me, Melissa
You know that I'm not dumb
So tell me, pretty baby, what have you done?
I won't play your game
If you won't change your ways
Oh no, oh no
