

Little Blue River

The Bears

All your tears
Make me shiver
Sometimes i think
You're a little blue river

I don't want to see you cry
But i've got to leave tonight
The floor is filled with all my things
Now i know what fortune brings

All my talk just fills the air
It always leaves us nowhere
Everybody's faucet drips
On every wall something sticks