

Success

The Bears

If a man is centered upon himself the smallest risk is too great for him

Success and failure can destroy him but if he's centered on true love

No risk is too great - success is guaranteed already

The union of creator and creature beside which all else is meaningless

The lurid melodrama played itself out in a luxury motel room by the sea

Said my wife as I sunk my teeth in her brown thigh,