

B Some Melody

The Beautiful Girls

girl, you and i we both know something about this situation must change live on an island or maybe, someday we'll wake under the pouring rain we'll sail in a rocky boat on the sea we'll count all the stars fall, you and me in everything hear some melody these arms of mine, they yearn to hold you to me we'll be lonely no more two castaways lost drifting slowly to be washed on some distance shore

so, b let's not ever get old there's just too many do as they're told let's just live, let's just love and be bold oh, b let's not ever get old
