

My Mind Is An Echo Chamber

The Beautiful Girls

see, I feel so lost without you without you near to me see, I feel so cold without you without you here to see this world keep spinning round its orbit here in space and, each time I look around I swear I see your face I see your face... and I know at times I've tested your patience, hurt your soul but never have I suggested we ever let this go now I miss you more than you could ever realise and, if i could take it back I promise you I'd try I'd... tell you we could make it matter tell you we could make it good I've got a heart that's made to shatter maybe that's the way it should and I know this world gets crazy well I lost all self control where are you to come to save me when I need you near to hold?

oh my mind is an echo chamber
