Wide Eyes

The Beautiful Mistake

Walking by your house, And reeking of The drinks I've had My life is just a waste, A blinded waste And I'm wide awake

My eyes have met with yours Depressions gone away I won't walk away from you Like the prodigal I've been I'll never run away from you Cause I've seen the other side

I'm never going back again Back again right now With my eyes, my eyes wide open My eyes, my eyes wide open I walked away from you And I walked away from you
