

Welcome to the badlands
What a better faire
A creative one
Be a naked sun
Real saviors in the shows
What's compromising?
Welcome to the badlands
What a better faire
A creative one
Under a naked sun
We are players in the shows

I can hardly hear you crying
Hardly see your shine
Too late I hear your part less saying
Do what these gods are saying
And all this freezing in the heart
And our soul is breaking
And bring gods on this side
I'm swept over
For a better start

I can hardly hear you crying
Hardly see your shine
Too late I hear your part less saying
Do what these gods are saying
And all this freezing in the heart
And our soul is breaking

And bring gods on this side
And bring gods on this side
And bring gods on this side
And bring gods on this side

I can hardly hear you crying
Hardly see your shine
Too late I hear your part less saying
Do what these gods are saying
And all this freezing in the heart
And our soul is breaking

And bring gods on this side
And bring gods on this side

When I see these dreadful gods
When I see these dreadful gods
When I feel the dreadful hearts
When I feel the dreadful hearts
When I see these dreadful gods
When I feel the dreadful hearts
