

Forgiveness

The Beauty of Gemina

When I see in this Time
I see this endless Light is coming through
When I see you
When I see in this, coming down
And every Time I fear it inside

When all this Sitting, crawling here and keeping down
And I feel sad and tired
When every Take and every Aim
Takes seven Times to define you

When every Time you're in this All
And you forgave me - you break within
Whenever you and I can feel

You're lost in Time, and I am lost in you
And I'll go home - and I'll go home

When I see in this Time
I see this endless Light is coming through
When I see you
When I see in this, coming down
And in my Mind I fear it inside

When every Sign is coming out
And I never take you down
To see it in me

When every Fighting is as precious
As coming down to seven Tears to sail

When every Time you're in this All
And you forgave me - you break within
Whenever you and I can feel

You're lost in Time, and I am lost in you
And I'm coming home - and I'm coming home

And I'm coming home - and I'm coming home
