

Nightglow

The Benjamin Gate

If I close my eyes I can still see
This night be light to me
Twist and turn in my weak soul
Seach for Your coal to burn me

In Your nightglow, in Your nightglow
In Your nightglow, in Your nightglow

Though my eyes are tight
In a promise sealed
Your Spirit sees for me
And I take Your hand, my heart is Yours
To wonder in this land

In Your nightglow, in Your nightglow
In Your nightglow, in Your nightglow

Because of Your nightglow
I can see Your nightglow
