

The Way You Are

The Benjamin Gate

Hey, here comes the surprise
You should be waiting with open minds
Careful you don't turn away
You'll soon be screaming to this beautiful display

Crystallize, let your spirit become wise
Improvise, don't let this world take you for granted

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to live

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to give

My heart's free, my life's enriched
I'm holding on to Your hands again
The grace rains down as I say
I want to live in this beautiful delay

As time moves, the story grows
My eyes will shine at the sound of Your name
The day is coming and my heart knows
That love and family are all that will remain

Crystallize, let your spirit become wise
Improvise, don't let this world take you for granted

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to live

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to give

The way You are, the way You are
The way You are

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to live

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to give

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to live

The way You are, the way You are
Couldn't bring more joy
Couldn't free me more to give
