

Lonely World

The Berzerker

Trust me, feel my power
Anger, it burns inside
My life, of my life
Anger, anger
So full of rage and hatred

Now that I know what's right

A call to god
Goes unheard, unanswered
Lonely world
Robs us of your morals and tortures me

I can't, feel like that
Lesson, The worlds deprived
More lies, more lies
Favours, favours
I will give No more favours
And I'll watch you decline

A call to god
Goes unheard, unanswered
Lonely world
Robs us of your morals and tortures me
