

It's Alright

The Bicycle Thief

The only thing
That the spring will bring
Is it's cruelty
And violence
Ahh the cold
It covers the desert
And keeps us safe

Our weaknesses
And adversity
Pull us together
Well just like Christmas does
And who's to say
That when you're lonely
You're not supposed
To be

And it's alright
It's alright
It's all alright
Right now
Well right now yeah
And it's alright
It's alright
It's all alright
Right now
Well right now
It's alright

There's hardly anything
That's not beautiful
Or magical
In and of itself
Can't the truth be known
By a sinner
The same as a saint

And it's alright...

What I'm trying to say
About this whole mess
Is that it's your own experience
There really is
No right or wrong
There just is

And it's alright...
