

Lifespan Of A Fly

The Bird and the Bee

Oh, my children
Oh, my loves
You are not alone

I must go
I'll miss you so
My time has finally come

Oh, my lovers
Oh, my lives
Keep me in your minds

Don't despair
Don't chase the air
Where we once lived together

I have no regrets for anything I've done
I feel like I've lived as good as anyone
Remember me, remember me as best you can
So I might live, outlive my lifespan

Here I will lie
From where I sprung
The circle is completed

The earth is warm
How I transformed
And now I am defeated

I have no regrets for anything I've done
I feel like I've lived as good as anyone
Remember me, remember me as best you can
So I might live, outlive my lifespan
