The Birthday Massacre

- I think my friend said "I hear footsteps"
 I wore my black and white dress to the birthday massacre, birthday
 I wore my black and white dress
- I think my friend said "stick it in the back of her head" I think my friend said "two of them are sisters" "I am a murder tramp, birthday boy", I think I said "I'm gonna bash them in, bash them in, I think he said

Then we wished them all a happy birthday
We kissed them all goodnight
Now he chases me to my room, chases me to my room, chases me in my black and red dress

I think my friend said "don't forget the video"
I think my friend said "don't forget to smile"
"You're a murder tramp, murder tramp" I think he said
"You're a murder boy, birthday boy" I think I said

I think my friend said "stick it in the back of her head" I think my friend said "two of them are sisters" "I am a murder tramp, birthday boy", I think I said "I'm gonna bash them in, bash them in", I think he said

I think my friend said "don't forget the video"
I think my friend said "don't forget to smile"
"You're a murder tramp, murder tramp" I think he said
"You're a murder boy, birthday boy" I think I said
