Flies

The Black Dahlia Murder

Down, start digging down your throat Another string of lies is born You must exemplify perfection Bronzing a broken life of shit

You filthy liar
Septic tongue, shit eating grin
Slow internal suicide
An inch within a trigger's pull again
This disease it is your mainstay
It wears its wires within me

Tender tissues scraped away
Of secrets etched in nameless graves
The smell of vomit hangs in the air tonight
Blush, eyeliner, lipstick it's all alright tonight

You filthy liar Septic tongue, shit eating grin Love me with your yellowed smile My flies are hungry for your kiss

Poison me my darling Graves grow deeper with each passing day This appalling love bask in your putrid revelry Beauty lost in between the lashes of sick drunken eye

Like a fool, you have believed Life of shame You have fallen completely beneath

And when the curtains finally part You'll see that everyone is laughing I am weakness just like you I'll bury you before you're dead

Cockroach come crawling home, crawl Slithering through this world of sculpted shit So thrust those fingers deep my child It is your burden and your gift

You filthy liar
Septic tongue, shit eating grin
Slow internal suicide
An inch within a trigger's pull again

Poison me my darling Graves grow deeper with each passing day This appalling love bask in your putrid revelry
