

Before The People

The Black Heart Procession

Before the church
Before the people
We had a feeling something was lost
Between a feeling before you notice
There is a choice there is a silence inside
Before I could focus before I noticed
The stranger who stood outside slipped from my sight
This is not my mind was the reflection from inside
This is not my mind