

Hold Me in Your Arms

The Black Keys

Well, I need you, need you by my side
Lonely evenin', eyes are open wide
Nothin' you say could make me turn my back

Well, I see you and you see me too
Moon is risin', night will be here soon
Follow me and lay down in my room

Hold me, hold me in your arms
Well, now heal me, heal me with your touch
Your touch keeps me hangin' on
