I Cry Alone

The Black Keys

My girl, my girl had a hold on me So tight, so tight that I could not see Girl, she had a hold on me She held so tight that I could not see My girl, my girl had a hold on me

One day, one day I let her go It hurt, it hurt so, you'll never know The day I had to let her go It hurt so bad that you cannot know One day, one day I let her go

At night, at night I cry alone I weep, I weep 'til the early morn' At night, night I cry alone I weep all night, 'til the early morn' At night, at night I cry alone
