

Next Girl

The Black Keys

Well, the look of the cake, it ain't
It ain't always the taste
My ex girl, she had such a
Such a beautiful face

I wanted love
But not for myself
But for the girl, so she could
So she could love herself

Oh, my next girl
Will be nothing like my ex girl
I made mistakes back then
I'll never do it again

Oh, my next girl
She'll be nothing like my ex girl
It was a painful death
Now, I got a second chance

Oh, her beautiful face and her
And her wicked ways
And I'm praying for
Her beautiful face everyday

All that work, over
Over so much time
If I, if I think too hard
I might lose my mind

Oh, my next girl, yeah
Will be nothing like my ex girl
I made mistakes back then
I'll never do it again

Yeah, my next girl
She'll be nothing like my ex girl
That was a painful death and I
I got a second chance, yeah

Next girl, yeah
My next girl
