She wanna get out of the car, in the middle of the road And her screaming and hollerin', is getting mighty old She check every paper, oh when you step out the room

Ain't go no trust in your mama Ain't got no trust in your daddy Ain't got no trust in your sister And she ain't got trust in you

She want a simple life, she need a simple man
That don't drink or smoke darlin', play in a rock and roll band Oh but she want you to hold her at night when she's lonely and blue, yeah

Ain't go no trust in your mama Ain't got no trust in your daddy Ain't got no trust in your sister And she ain't got trust in you

Yeah she's a beautiful gal, yeah when she wanna be But if you told her so darlin', she'd just disagree Oh, she hates your job and what you want him to do
