

Hope

The Blackout

Give up, give in,
Cos you know you'll never become something,
Just the same as ever.
You won't fit in that's just how it goes.
Breathe in, walk out,
Will anybody ever know?

I know you find it hard to shine,
When every turn you take is lined,
With the fear of never making it alive.
Woah oh!

Never give in,
Hope is all we have and all we've ever known.
Woah oh!
Never fear it,
But you gotta hear me out,
Woah oh!
So scream it out loud!
And scream it out loud!

We will be big (always standing proud)
We will sing up (we will shout it loud)
We can be strong (when it all comes down)
We won't move on we will always stick around.

I know you find it hard on times,
When everyone you see is blind,
To the hopes that you still dream about inside.
Woah oh!

Never give in,
Hope is all we have and all we've ever known.
Woah oh!
Never fear it,
But you gotta hear me out,
Woah oh!
So scream it out loud.

guitar instrumental

Never give in,
Hope is all we have and all we've ever known.
Woah oh!
Never fear it,
But you gotta hear me,
It's all we've ever known.
Woah oh!

Never fear it, (scream it out loud)
Hope is all we have and all we've ever known. (Scream it out loud x3)
Never fear it, (scream it out loud)
But you gotta hear me out, (scream it out loud)
Woah oh!
So scream it out loud.
