I've Got Better Things To Do Tonight Than Die

The Blackout

We can see through you But we don't have x-ray eyes We can see the truth And set our sights upon the prize Say what you will We are never gonna crack There's a time to kill And we all know that this is it So bang your head and close your eyes We are about to take our lives We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse Don't try to run Detonation is underway Your ends begun Your black skies have turned to grey The sky will fall Down on everything you know You can't ask more You face a mother without hope So bang your head and close your eyes We are about to take our lives We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse We are, we are the dynamite We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse We are the dynamite Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse So light the fuse Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse Light the fuse Demolition is our religion, so light the fuse
