

Beheaded My Way

The Bled

A long shot.

The liar is the only one who spills his guts.

We all swallow your words like starving dogs.

We eat it up.

Hell of a scam.

You pulled the wool over our broken eyes again who's in command

Hell of a scam, you got the one armed man to tie the rope again

Who's in command?

Yeah, we'll have your head,

We'll have your head we've been misled we'll have your head.

We'll have your head and mercy's not something

You'll be blessed with you'll take a trip to the guillotine

The price of your guilty plea you sold me an empty dream

Now my hearts too black for you to be redeemed

We broke our backs for you we fought your wars for you

We heard your words as gospel truth we slaved away for you

We never questioned you we spread your words as gospel truth

We are forgotten names the only friends you betrayed a stop on your rise,

Can't look us in the eyes I'd put this to bed but the sting rem ains

We'll have your head and lay you to waste.
