This life is a mystery
This life is a mystery
There's strange thing happening in the World
And I keep in my account everyday
And I keep on struggling
And I keep on fighting
And I keep on fighting everyday everyday
Yes!
"Something wey dey vex me be say
Oh GOD!

This life have been something that I have been thinking
Too much for my brain

[Body]

Your friend can be your enemy sometime
Your enemy can turn to be your friend
The way that you're following can be slippery sometime
Everybody that ve been your friend can say goodbye
Love turn to hate
Couples go estrange
Tribulation can make happiness to be at stake
Family go to war
The Law against the World
Religious crisis, politics are shedding blood
In the middle of your peak death calling
At the depth of your fall you start rising
Teacher might be wrong
Student might be right
Oh
Who'll you believe when you can't trust yourself
Oh!
What will you do if your strength cannot help

[Hook]

This life have been something that I have been thinking

Too much for my brain
This life have been something that I have been thinking
Wanna know
Now I know oh oh oh oh
Yeah.

[Outro] [Till fade]
"Oye Oluwa"...
