

Trust In Your Love

The Bliss

Woke this morning feeling strange
Dreamt that you were going away
Maybe we are travelling at different times
A lonely spirit that sometimes collide

I don't want to hold this fear anymore
I want to leave the past behind
I don't want to hold this pain anymore
I want to trust what I've begun

Did I sleep well last night
I seemed to read for hours on end
A settled mind lets you sleep
I tossed and turned but couldn't weep

I don't want to hold this fear anymore
I want to leave the past behind
I don't want to hold this pain anymore
I want to trust what I've begun

I don't want to hold this fear anymore
I want to leave the past behind
I don't want to hold this pain anymore
I want to trust in your love
I want to trust in your love
I want to trust in your love
I want to trust in your love
I want to trust in your love
In your love
