

Stay

The Blue Nile

I'm taking off this party hat
The white situation is over
A new situation begins
The red guitar is broken
To beat the drum of youth again
Take too long to say

Stay, stay, stay
I will understand you
Stay, I will understand you

I write a new book everyday
The love theme for the wilderness
I fit the words together
Candy girls want candy boxes
She loves the music box forever
She's crying on my shoulder

Stay, stay, stay
I will understand you
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I will understand you

Summer girls in disarray
Can be so free and easy now
Well, we'll be free and easy

Stay, stay, stay
And I will understand you
Stay, I will understand you

I write a new book everyday
A love theme for the wilderness
A love theme

Stay, stay, stay, stay
