

Loser Takes It All

The Blue Van

You keep your nugget in your pocket And you head in the clouds
You got famous, 'cause you know just how to suck it And you mama's proud

The best man takes the fall and the loser takes it all The best man takes the fall when the loser takes it all

You spend your daddy's money But you've never worked a day in your life
No, your words are only cunning 'Cause you wrap them in your childish lies
