The Remains Of Sir Maison

The Blue Van

You know where I can be found Among the rebels with a sound Take a dive and go today Like the Thief likes to say

It's all over 'cause he's on board It's all over 'cause he's on board

Why is it now that we're so wrong? Take a journey, just come along Buy the ticket, stand in line Buy that ticket, free your kind

It's all over 'cause he's on board It's all over 'cause he's on board The journey is now, this is not mars Get it together, we'll go real far I've had enough!
