

The Socialite

The Blue Van

You think you're on your own You think you're in control If there's a scene somewhere you're gonna play your role

You might be acting high You just might seem kinda odd When the spotlight is off you're nothing but a fraud

She said, I don't dance, I don't sing, to be honest I don't do a damn thing When we go out every night and we go out every night

You don't fit anywhere Oh, you claim that you don't care Who wants to fit in with a crowd that's never there?

You think you're in control You think you're on your own But let me tell you, mama, I can tell a lie

She said, I don't dance, I don't sing, to be honest I don't do a damn thing When we go out in the night and we go out every night She said, I don't dance, I don't sing, to be honest I don't do a damn thing But we go out every night, 'cause we're the socialites